The Luxuries of Labor in Iowa.

A Union county farmer who has found farm hands difficult to secure has formulated this set of rules, which should prove a winning card, says the Shenandoah (La.) Sentinel.

"Wages will be $6 a day. Breakfast will be served in bed. Working hours will be from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. All heavy work is to be done by the boss. Cigars furnished free. Any hand working the entire season can leave the farm."

A Bishop in Favor of Cremation. The bishop of Worcester, England, at the opening of the crematorium in Birmingham recently by Sir Henry Thompson wrote that he desired when he died that his body might be reduced to ashes as rapidly as possible, so that the dead should do no harm to the living, says the Church Eclectic. He saw no serious Christian argument against such a practice, while from the sanitary point of view it had enormous advantages.

Are you about to build? If so see that your builder's contract has a clause providing that the structure shall be erected by union labor which will insure you of good work and a job completed without delay. Per order Union 481, Carpenters and Joiners of America. S. R. Doty, Sec.

CURIOUS FAMILY TANGLE.

Chicago Woman's Divorced Husband Is Her Employee.

John Helms could not attend his wife's divorce suit in Judge Tuttle's court at Chicago the other day because Mrs. Helms, who is head of the department in which he is employed in a downtown department store, could not let him off.

Hereafter Helms must not only report for orders to his divorced wife, but he must pay her alimony of $5 weekly, and that may come hard. Mrs. Helms told the court that in the future she had always supported her husband.

"I paid the rent and household expenses for six years," the wife explained.

"You have not asked for alimony," said the court.

"No," Mrs. Helms replied, with a smile, "all I care for is the divorce."

"Well, I'll allow you alimony of $5 a week. As head of Mr. Helms' department I suppose you can see that he pays it?"

"I can," the department head answered.

"I wonder whether she will discharge her ex-husband or raise his salary when she gets back to the store?" whispered a woman who was waiting her own turn for divorce.

A Curious Exchange.

Recently a peculiar business transaction was recorded at Lebanon, Pa., when Grocer John Light transferred to Baker William A. Garrett a fifteen acre farm in Berks county for a consideration of 7,000 loaves of bread, says the Philadelphia Record. The bread is to be delivered in quantities such as may be needed to supply the daily demand of patrons at Grocer Light's store.

HERE AT HOME.

Barre Citizens Gladly Testify. It is testimony like the following that has placed "The Old Quaker Store" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Barre citizen.

Mrs. John Bessett. (John Bessett, stone cutter, residence, Pleasant Street, near Fortney, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, sold by E. A. Brown's drug store, did me more good than all the other remedies for the kidneys I ever used. For the results I obtained I most emphatically endorse the preparation. At different times for three or four years I suffered from acute backache and when that was not present there was a dull aching through my loins and kidneys, sometimes changing to sharp twinges, positively proving that in some way the action of these organs was disturbed. When in the acute stage twinges were sure to catch me if I stooped, and if I attempted to lift anything even light I was always rewarded with extra aggravated aches. In the morning I have often been so lame and sore across the small of my back that I could hardly get out of bed, and although I tried remedy after remedy advertised I received little if any benefit. A friend was so emphatic about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills that I took his advice and commenced the treatment. They helped me after a dose or two and when I completed the treatment of two boxes, the backache ceased, my kidneys were thoroughly cleaned and I was in better health than I had been for many a long day."

For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
